As The Year Ends
By Ronald Bartanen

As the year 2015 rapidly draws to a close, we should remind ourselves once again of this gift of God we call “time.” How quickly the year has passed! Time has been described as “a section cut from the great circle of eternity,” and “the uncertain boundaries of life on earth.” Ben Franklin said, “Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of.” Someone else once said, “I have no yesterdays. Time took them all away. Tomorrow may not be, but I have today.” Time has great value. Although you may not be paid an hourly wage, you cannot limit the value of time.

If you would burn a $100 bill, you would be destroying more than the paper and ink of which it consists. You would, in essence, be taking bread from your table, medicine from the sick, and books from the scholar. Likewise, the value of time is not in itself, but in what time offers us—the blessings, privileges, and opportunities of life.

Time is NOW. Not yesterday—all of the yesterdays have passed on, and its opportunities are no more. Tomorrow has not yet come—and it may never be. You are left with only today. This must have been in the apostle Paul’s mind when he admonished, “See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time because the days are evil” (Ephesians 5:15-16, NKJV). Time well-spent is time spent in the will of God.
